

SDD ONLINE EDUCATIONAL GAME

One of the key outcomes of SDD is the online educational game that shows learners the complexity of discrimination. The game is based on real life experiences from people who are discriminated against. Read more
The game is also a detective game. Who dunnit? Who wants to steal the painting? Play and find out.

WANTED
Online testers of the game will meet on February 23rd at 19.00 CET to jointly test the full game. Interested to join? Please drop your name and email address with Jonas Bernitt (jonas@afedemy.eu) and you get the link.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Bildungsstätte Anne Frank, Frankfurt (Germany)
In four short videos, Nava Zarabian of the Anne Frank Foundation explains why they joined the SDD-project, what they liked and have learned.
Read more

Partner SHINE2 Europe from Coimbra (Portugal) joined the SDD project because this project meets their mission and views on the inclusion of people of all generations and cultural backgrounds.
Read more

Partner AGE Platform Europe joined the SDD project because protection against age discrimination, promotion of equal rights and participation are the cornerstones in their agenda. For more information, please read the full article online.

Read more

The seventh evaluation on the Code of Conduct on Countering Illegal Hate Speech Online shows that the number of notifications reviewed within 24 hours has decreased compared to 2021. Only TikTok has increased its performance.

Read more

You received this newsletter because you are connected to the work of the partners of the SDD project: ISIS GmbH, SHINE 2Europe, Bildungsstätte Anne Frank, Charles University, Lunaria, AGE Platform Europe and AFEdeMy.

If you want to unsubscribe, please let us know.