Annex 0 - General Instructions

Introduction

Would you like to start your own test team to assess the accessibility of buildings, restaurants, or shops? If so, there are a number of appendices that you will need to complete. Each document contains some information that is already fixed. You can adapt other parts to suit your situation.

What appendices are there?

1. Template Laws and Regulations
2. Recruitment and Selection Test Team
3. Description of Methodology
4. Checklist
5. Accessibility Advice Template
6. Assessment Toolkit and Training
7. Practical Examples Template

Please note: Not all types of limitations are mentioned in these documents. Would you like to add something about a limitation that is not yet mentioned? You can do so yourself or indicate that you would like an addition.

The appendices provide structure and an overview. They are based on existing knowledge and experience and form the basis for the training.

We recommend that you read all the appendices carefully before starting the training.
