Annex 1 – Template Laws and Regulations

Introduction

This table is intended as a tool for countries working with the toolkit. It enables each country to clearly describe its own situation by incorporating relevant provisions from the UN Convention and corresponding national or regional legislation.

Country	Enter the country for which you are collecting information.
UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities	Indicate whether this country has signed/ratified the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (yes/no, and year if applicable).
UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities – articles	Write down which articles of the convention are most important in line with the toolkit.
What does the convention say?	Describe here what the articles in the UN Convention aim to achieve. Explain why this is important for the toolkit.
National (and regional) legislation	Describe which articles are important for each law. Briefly explain what these articles mean. If there are regional laws, briefly explain them as well.
Additions	Leave space here to add additional information later.
